FUNDRAISING

Each participant should consult with their pastor about fundraising opportunities. Sending support letters to friends and family is a great way to ask for prayer and financial support.

Sample fundraising letters are attached to this packet.

VACCINATIONS

We recommend consulting your health care provider at least 6 weeks before departure to inquire about recommended vaccinations for your trip. If you are up-to-date on shots recommended by public schools, then typically you will be good for most trips.

The Centers for Disease Control has a list of recommended vaccines online at: <http://www.cdc.gov/travel/destinationList>.

TRIP COST

Trip cost includes: AIM training, round trip airfare, housing, transportation and meals in country, travel insurance, and day off activities. Final Price of the trip will be published on:

TRAINING

You will be given instruction from experienced travelers and missionaries on how to prepare for a mission trip and what to expect on your trip. This training will take place at the AIM Kick Off at

FUNDRAISING

Money donated by friends and family members should be sent directly to the participant's home church. Their donations are tax-deductible. There are some additional fundraising tips on our website: www.minnesotaaim.com. Donations must not be written out to participants, they must be written out to the local church to be considered tax-deductible.

PAYMENT INFO

All payments should be turned into the participant's local church and postmarked by the due date and sent to the district office at:
